

Data Documentation

The Pawsey Supercomputing Centre provides the capabilities for building, archiving and sharing research collections in the form of managed storage allocations. Access to this service is via a merit based application process. These services are backed by high performance data storage with utilisation tools provided by the Mediaflux storage management platform.

Getting Started

How do I apply for managed storage?

Utilising Your Allocation

Accessing data

Managing data

Transfer Your Data to Nimbus \(includes IRDS\)

How to transfer data from IRDS at UWA to Zeus and Magnus

Terms

Data Storage and Management Policy

Conditions of Use